

WHITE CLOUD, KANSAS:
Thursday, : : October 10, 1887.

The Elections.

The following are the general results of Tuesday's elections, as far as received, to late Wednesday night:

Ohio.—The contest is close on State ticket. The Democrats claim the election of their ticket by some 10,000 majority, and majorities in both branches of the Legislature, which would secure the election of a man of the stripe of Vallandigham or Pendleton to the United States Senate, in place of Wade. The Cleveland Leader concedes the State to the Democrats by 5,000; but the Columbus Journal claims that the Republicans have carried their State ticket by a small majority, and have a majority in the House, while the Democrats have a majority of one in the Senate. It may be called uncertain. The negro suffrage amendment is defeated by less than 50,000. Cary, the Temperance-Johnson-Whiskey candidate, is elected to Congress in Cincinnati. The African was too much for the Ohio Republicans to carry, and no doubt broke down the machine.

PENNSYLVANIA.—The contest was for Judge of the Supreme Court. The Democratic candidate is elected by from 7,000 to 10,000 majority. The Democrats gain heavily in Philadelphia, and are boasting of a gain of 1,000 in Thad. Stevens County.

IOWA.—The State has gone Republican, but we have no particulars.

NEBRASKA.—This young State has done better than any. The Republicans carry Douglas County by 250 majority, and have over 900 majority in Omaha. In the Democratic stronghold, Nebraska City, the Republicans gain nearly 400, and elect a majority of their ticket in Otoe County. Over in Richardson, they ran the Copperhead ticket in connection with the County Seat question, and have probably won the day.

On the whole, the elections are encouraging to Johnson, and we may look for renewed trouble from the President.

LATEST.—Thursday morning's report leaves no doubt of the election of the Democratic State ticket in Ohio, and a Democratic majority in both branches of the Legislature. Farewell, Brother Wade!

The Democratic majority in Pennsylvania increases as the returns come in.

No material change in gold, as yet.

NEW POLITICAL ELEMENT.—A new element is coming into politics, which seems destined to have only the effect of damaging itself. We allude to the working men. They are forming associations in all the cities, and are naturally running into politics. Demagogues and hired agents creep into their associations, for the purpose of influencing them. They usually manage to have the Working-men nominate candidates for the various offices, the result of which is a heavy reduction of the Republican vote, a defeat of the party, and a Democratic triumph; for a large majority of the Working-men are Republicans. The Republican party, the party of freedom and reform, is the only hope of the poor man and the Working-man. Every movement of the Working-men that has the effect of reducing the Republican vote and enabling the Democrats to succeed, is a direct stroke at their own most vital interests.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—EPILEPSY OR FALLING SICKNESS.—As preventives from a recurrence or in establishing a permanent cure of these periodical fits, whether arising from a plethoric or enfeebled constitution, Holloway's Pills have been eminently successful in every instance. They not only purify but equalize the circulation of the vital fluids, stimulate the torpid action of the functions and invigorate the system. For apoplexy and rush of blood to the brain, they are the only antidote. Sold by all Druggists.

ANOTHER IN THE FIELD.—Joseph F. Hampton is announced as a candidate for Sheriff. Mr. Hampton is an old citizen of the County, is at present doing the principal part of the Sheriff's business, and has had much experience in that and other County offices. We think we may safely say that in capacity as a public officer, he has no superior in the State. If elected, the office of Sheriff will be in good hands.

SUFFRAGE SPEAKING.—We are requested to announce that Miss Olympia Brown will speak at Bowen's School House, in Brown County, on Tuesday, the 29th inst., at 2 o'clock P. M.; and in White Cloud, at 7 o'clock on the same evening. This will be just one day in advance of Elizabeth Cady Stanton's appointment, who will speak here on Wednesday, the 30th.

ALWAYS SURE TO CURE DYSPEPSIA.—It removes the cause, therefore removes the disease. Its effects are instantaneous—don't take 15 minutes. Its results are permanent and lasting. Coo's Dyspepsia Cure should have a home in every household.

Salem has been chosen as County Seat of Richardson County, Nebraska, on the first ballot, over both Falls City and Arago.

Clogs to Progress and Reform.

Over two hundred and thirty years have flown since Galileo was imprisoned for asserting that the world moves. Several generations have passed since the pod-anger went out of use; and to-day probably one cannot be found stowed away in the garret of any gentleman of the olden time. The old Pennsylvania Dutchman who insisted that wheat must be placed in one end of the sack and a stone in the other, because his ancestors did so, has long slept with his fathers, and his descendants are doubtless satisfied that the better plan is to fill both ends of the sack with wheat. But we still have an abundance of men of the same spirit that prompted the imprisonment of Galileo for asserting a newly discovered truth, and clung to the pod-anger, and the stone in one end of the sack. Every time the car of progress starts for a new station, they grab hold, pull back with all their pony might, and exclaim that everything will be smashed and ruined. But the car drags them on, in spite of themselves; then they declare that it is just the right place to stop at, and pull back when the car starts again.

We have these clogs in Kansas. They pulled back on negro suffrage, until they were forced into it; now they are pulling as earnestly against female suffrage, declaring that negro suffrage is just the thing we want, but that female suffrage is a heresy that cannot be tolerated. Yes, "heresy" is the word. Galileo's discovery was pronounced a "heresy"; the discovery of the art of printing was a "heresy"; in fact, every effort, for centuries past, to carry light into dark places and to overturn ancient wrongs, has been a "heresy."

The Kansas clogs are pulling back, and croaking. Down in Atchison County, in the Republican Convention, last year, they denounced and voted down a resolution favoring negro suffrage, because they said it would damage the party. This year, they say that negro suffrage is the quintessence of Republicanism, but that female suffrage is a heresy which must be smothered out. Next year, they will be pulling back on something else, and croaking. Down in Southern Kansas is an individual who, a couple of winters ago, was a member of the Legislature. Mr. Langston and another colored man visited the House, and a motion was made to admit them within the bar. This individual moved that this resolution be thrown under the table, which prevailed. Thus two intelligent colored men were insulted to their faces, because they were black. This same individual is now fighting female suffrage, because, he says, it interferes with negro suffrage, which is the great question; and a majority of those who voted with him, to insult those two negroes, are croaking on the same hobby, and are asking Mr. Langston and other colored men to unite with them in opposing female suffrage. There are scores of similar instances in Kansas—all pulling back, and croaking.

"But the world does move," and pod-angers, and stones in one end of the wheat sack, are out of date.

"SHOVING."—We will say to the Marysville Enterprise, and to all others who do not or affect not to understand, that we have no objection to I. S. Kallioh or any other man canvassing against female suffrage, on his own responsibility; but we do object to his doing so as an accredited agent of the Republican party. Kallioh, Eskridge and others met at Lawrence, and resolved to canvass the State in opposition to female suffrage; and they asked the Republican Central Committee to co-operate with them. Then they immediately set to work to get appointed to this business by the Republican Committee, and by some hook or crook apparently succeeded—making it appear as if the Republican party had sent them out to oppose female suffrage. This is all that we objected to. We are opposed to the party, as an organization, engaging in that issue, at least at the present time. We would be just as much opposed to the Central Committee sending out speakers to canvass the State in favor of female suffrage, under the auspices of the party; and if Lucy Stone, Mrs. Stanton, Miss Brown, or any other woman suffrage speakers, should propose such a thing, we would object.

COUNTY COMMISSIONER.—The name of John H. Ut appears in our announcement column, as a candidate for County Commissioner. We know that Mr. Ut has consented to become a candidate, against his own wishes, at the urgent solicitation of persons from various parts of the County. The condition of the County requires the services of careful and shrewd business men in that important office. Mr. Ut has been tried; and the favorable condition in which he left our County affairs, has created the desire with very many tax-payers to have him again a member of the County Board.

GET WHAT YOU PAY FOR.—In buying Salutaris, as other things, see that you get what you pay for, viz.: 16 ounces when you pay for a pound. If you always buy D. B. De Land & Co.'s Best Chemical Salutaris you will never be deceived, but always get full weight and the best goods.

LECTURE.—Rev. H. P. Robinson will deliver a Lecture in White Cloud, on Saturday evening, October 12th. The public are invited to attend.

The German Question.

The Leavenworth Commercial has found, in an editorial on the Germans and the temperance and Sunday question, a hobby on which to ride after German support for the Copperhead cause. It dishonestly attempts to create the impression that we denounced all Germans, and has not the fairness to inform its readers that we distinctly referred only to a certain class of Germans, who usually congregate in cities, and are known as Irish-Germans, or rather Atheists. We have the highest respect for Germans generally, and regard them as among the best and most industrious of our citizens. But the class we referred to, by no means monopolizes the German element in America. We retract not a word we said about them; on the contrary, we here reiterate all we said in the article referred to. But there are thousands of Germans who entertain entirely different and far better views than that class. One of them has written a communication which appears in the Lawrence Tribune, and accords exactly with what we expressed. He certainly cannot be accused of enmity toward Germans; and as his words are plain and to the point, we copy them below:—

TO THE GERMANS.

Circumstances have prevented me from attending your meetings, for or against female suffrage, temperance and Sunday laws. I do not pretend to any superior wisdom or intelligence that the majority of my fellow-countrymen, but a word of warning might not come amiss.

I appeal to you as one having some experience in political contests, (for I have for the past twenty-two years been engaged in the struggle in States, both slave and free.) You say you came to this country in search of true liberty and freedom, and that temperance laws and Sabbath observances interfere with the exercise of either. Do not allow your prejudices and passions to undermine your understanding as regards the true meaning of these words.

When you were made citizens of the Republic, you solemnly pledged to the people of this country that you would support the principles of the Constitution, and would not use force to overthrow the same. You were not to use force to overthrow the same, but to use force to maintain the same. You were to use force to maintain the same, but to use force to maintain the same.

My creed is the principles of the Republican party, born of right, justice and equity, and to support them I devoted four years of my life to the service of my country. I do not intend to be light of the great truths which underlie the Declaration of Independence, that this nation chose no king but God, and I ask you earnestly to remember that His laws must be obeyed, no matter how much your mortal may rebel against them; and to arrange yourselves on the side of Sunday observance, temperance, and impartial suffrage, for only in these measures lie our safety as a nation and our prosperity as individuals.

You think that by forming a new party you can have your desires gratified, and that thereby you will be enabled to trample under foot all the restrictions the moral principles of the American people have hedged you in with. Undecide yourselves, Germans! As the American people have the solid pliancy of foreign birth arrayed against its detestable proclivities, insuring to it the most perfect unity in the interest of your adopted country, as many of you have done during the recent struggle.

In the resolutions adopted at Topeka, the agitators of that meeting announced "that the whole energy of the organization shall be confined only to such subjects in which there is no difference of opinion among our countrymen." So they think, then, that because the opposites to this organization stayed away from all such assemblies, that there is none in existence. Vain presumption! They will find that tens of thousands of German residents entertain a "difference of opinion," and will vote for men pledged to support the present restriction laws, both in the legislative halls and council chambers; neither will such resolutions make our American friends believe that the Germans are class, are wedded to Atheism, for, thank God, some of us have still a regard for the ten commandments and individual self-respect.

As I am not a candidate for the office of treasurer of the copperhead, and the nearest corner you may believe me that I am sincere, and your friend and well-wisher.

A. H. KOWAL.

We notice that one Col. Pierol, of Southern Kansas, took an active part in a recent negro suffrage meeting at Fort Scott. This Pierol was a delegate to the Republican State Convention, last Fall, and was the noisiest and most bitter opponent of the resolution endorsing negro suffrage as a Republican measure, which was defeated by that weak-backed Convention. We will wager the peaches that this same Pierol is now a blatant opponent of female suffrage, on the ground that it interferes with the question of negro suffrage!

HE KNOWS.—Kallioh says, in an article against female suffrage: "We implore thoughtful women to ponder this thing well. They may talk about their rights until they create a conflict between the sexes, in which the weaker would go to the wall, and in which it would speedily be determined which the weaker is."

Kallioh speaks whereof he knows. He has had a good deal of practice in that kind of business—and that's what "destroyed his usefulness!"

GEORGE FRANCIS TRAIN has been blowing again. He says he is coming to Kansas, to carry the State for female suffrage; that it must prevail in every State, and then the one million Irish servant girls in the United States will make it tell in favor of his candidate for the next Presidency. We are afraid Train wants to defeat the proposition. He hit it a hard lick that time.

GREELY. In his last Ledger paper, relates how he became a Universalist, and proceeds to show how his faith led him to advocate the pardon of Jeff. Davis and other rebels. This is the strongest argument against his faith that could be adduced. If Greeley keeps on, he will swamp Universalism.

THE CORONET OF NATURE is a magnificent head of hair. Apply Burnett's Oocoline to render it pliable, soft, and brilliant.

KALLOCH BLOWING.—Kalloch swaggers and blusters about how he is going to visit the towns where the papers are abusing him, and give the editors an opportunity to meet him in discussion, and all that. He says he will be in White Cloud, by the time we receive and publish the documents from Boston concerning him. If we receive them, we will publish them, he may rest assured; if we do not, we can't, and that's the end of it. As speaking seems to be his strong hold, he is at liberty to indulge in it; but as it is not our forte, we don't propose to meet him or any other man in discussion. But he may bet his bottom dollar on one thing: we shall write just what we think, and what suits us, regardless of all his bombast, and threats of what he is going to do. If he comes here, we have no doubt that there will be a good house to hear him; but we advise him to appoint a meeting of his own, and come upon his own responsibility, and not attach his unsavory presence to some popular speaker, to be thus imposed upon an audience that does not long for him, as a gob of hog offal sticks to the hollow of a man's boot sole, and is unconsciously dragged where its disgusting effect is soon realized.

Just at this moment we have received the following note, being a reply from Boston to a person in a neighboring County, to a request for information concerning Kallioh. It appears to refer to a case in the law courts instead of a church trial, and leaves us somewhat in the dark. Although by no means clear, we give it as it came:

Boston, Sept. 25, 1887.

MY DEAR FRIEND:—Yours came to hand in time, and I have been looking for the desired material. I can find it only in the newspaper files at office. They (the publishers) would not lose the files, but would allow any one to copy it off. I am so busy I could not do this. The case was in court about eight years ago, and was decided by the jury, eight for committing Rev. I. S. Kallioh, and four for acquittal. One of the papers of that date said it was a just verdict.

I am truly yours,

EVERY SATURDAY.—This popular Weekly presents its readers just those portions of European current literature which every intelligent American wishes and needs to see. Omitting the heavier papers, discussion of topics of local interest, it gathers from all sources the readable and instructive articles which express the best current thought of England and the Continent, and with the utmost promptness places them before American readers. Any good story, any popular sketch or essay, any interesting semi-scientific paper, any striking poem, or literary intelligence appearing in a European periodical, is sure to reappear speedily in the pages of Every Saturday. It is published by Ticknor and Fields, Boston.

THE ST. LOUIS DEMOCRAT, after laboring very zealously for the cause of female suffrage in Kansas, has suddenly veered round, and is now doing what it can to discourage the movement. The Antis have doubtless found its weak spot, and have got it to peddling their bosh about the women suffrage movement injuring the cause of negro suffrage. It is a pity the question has not two or three more sides to it, so that the Democrat might try his hand in favor of them all, before the election.

COUNTY SEAT DECISION.—Judge Graham, on Saturday, gave his decision in favor of Troy. We have not received particulars as to the points made. We suppose the Watheas people will carry the case up to the Supreme Court, in accordance with their expressed determination. If so, the matter is not yet settled; and in the meantime, it will do no good to fuss or worry over it.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE.—Israel May, Esq., of Iowa Point, has, at the solicitation of friends, consented to become a candidate for Representative of this District, which fact will be found announced in the proper column. He is a plain, practical man, possesses considerable popularity in the Township, and will make a strong run.

REPEAL THE!—It should be the duty of the next Legislature, to repeal the hang-bug known as the Registry law. If such a law is needed in cities, let it be made applicable to them alone, and not include the country. In Counties like ours, such a law is wholly unnecessary, and is a regular nuisance.

THEOLOGICAL DISCUSSION.—The discussion between Rev. Messrs. Mansford and Summerbell will commence at Oregon, on Wednesday evening, the 16th inst. During the progress of the debate, a Universalist Conference will be held at Oregon, to organize the first General Conference for Missouri.

AUCTIONEER.—See the Card of S. B. Sloane, who is a regularly licensed Auctioneer. He is experienced in the business, and the calls upon him are so numerous, that he has determined to go regularly into the business, and give notice accordingly.

ONE OF THE LEADING OPPONENTS of female suffrage, temperance, and Sabbath observance, in Lawrence, is named Asmann. The beauty of that name is, that an abbreviation does not mar its significance; but "any other name would smell as sweet."

IN AN FOREIGN COURT, Burnett's Floral would be considered a poor in Perfumery.

Railroad Election.

The following is the complete official vote on issuing Railroad Bonds:

	For.	Against.
White Cloud,	142	—
Iowa Point,	99	1
Highland,	126	11
Syracuse,	52	—
Walnut Grove,	89	6
Troy,	100	41
Charleston,	2	11
Lafayette,	2	8
Doniphan,	131	15
Geary City,	13	27
Coltman's,	13	78
Watheas,	163	8
Elwood,	59	2
Palermo,	33	33
Total,	1034	241
	841

Majority for Bonds, 793

SEVERE OPERATIONS.—Dr. Shreve last week had to operate upon two cases of dislocated shoulder, both of several weeks' standing, in which the injured parts had been growing and healing, rendering it necessary for him to renew the dislocation, and make a general stretching and tearing of muscles, tendons, etc. In one of the cases, the patient's system had to be first reduced by bleeding, and then ropes and pulleys were brought into requisition. That is the next thing to putting a man to the rack.

IT IS GETTING TO BE a matter of doubt whether Congress represents the people, or the people are the servants of Congress. It has been supposed that the people elected men to Congress, to carry out their sentiments; but the thing is turned around so that the people are required to chime in with any tomfoolery or child's side-play indulged in by Congress, and endorse it as genuine and orthodox, or they are hustled out of the party.

THAT TOURNAMENT.—We have watched the reports of proceedings of the State Fair, to ascertain how the Tournament came out; but not a word about Tournament can we find. We infer that the newspapers of Kansas have effectually squelched one effete humbug of the defunct Chivalry; and we venture to predict that it will never again figure in the programme of a Kansas State Fair.

WE DO WISH correspondents would be as brief as possible in their communications. There is no occasion to exhaust all the abstract commentaries on common law and political economy, and the compiled statistics of a State, in discussing ordinary questions of the day, upon which every man has his views, and which should be made clear to the child's understanding of the most simple-minded.

DAVID LEE.—We publish the announcement of David Lee, of Wayne Township, as a candidate for Commissioner. He served in that capacity for four years, and his acts are a good recommendation for him as a farmer and a tax-payer, and is interested in getting our County finances in proper shape once more.

ONE REV. DUNBAR, formerly of Kansas, has gone to Minnesota, united with the Baptist Church, and committed bigamy and other crimes. The Baptist Church is as good as any other; but it has the misfortune to be cursed with an unusual number of lascivious beasts, who find their way to Kansas.

WE WERE recently shown a letter which some one had picked up, in which a traveller had written three solid pages concerning an old flannel shirt that he had left in a room at a hotel. A man who can write three pages about a flannel shirt, is undoubtedly possessed of extraordinary genius.

THEY HAVE a public park, down at Ottawa. We understand that it is to be called Hyde Park, in honor of the illustrious exile from Fremont Temple, who was persecuted because of his staunch Republicanism!

TOM MURPHY, Superintendent of Indian Affairs, with his peace party, have been gobbled by the Cheyennes, and are held as hostages for the delivery of the annuity goods which have been held back.

THE STEAMER BEN JOHNSON sank two miles above Brownville, on Saturday morning last. The Upper Missouri has been a perfect graveyard for steamboats, during the past season.

S. B. SLOANE advertises a desirable dwelling house and three lots in White Cloud for sale. Here is a good chance for any one desiring to purchase a cheap residence.

FRANCHISE.—REV. MR. HORTON, (Universalist,) will preach in this place, on Monday and Tuesday evenings, the 14th and 15th inst.

SIDNEY CLARKE.—Recollect that Mr. Clarke will speak in this place, on Friday evening, the 19th inst. Let everybody turn out.

NEWSPAPER WRITERS say that President Johnson has an iron will. We suppose the particular kind of iron, may be termed "John-on iron."

THE BROWN COUNTY FAIR was postponed until Friday of this week, on account of unfavorable weather last week.

BURNETT'S KALLIOH softens the Skin, and is admirably adapted for Gentlemen's use after shaving.

A Puzzling Question.

One of the choice epithets at the Atchison Champion delights in applying to supporters of female suffrage, is "hermaphrodite politicians." At the head of this class stands Senator Pomeroy. Now, we suppose the editor of the Champion had a natural father and mother, like other people; but politically and financially, Pomeroy is his father. Had it not been for Pomeroy, he never would have owned a newspaper in Atchison, through the columns of which to dictate to the public, and abuse those who refused to follow his dictation; he would never have been heard of in a public capacity, and his lot would have fallen among the common herd; or, more likely, he would have been one of those peripatetic geniuses, with red nose and dirty shirt, who occasionally show the light of their countenances in country printing offices, with the salutation: "Well, how, what's the chance for a 'sit' for a few days? I've walked forty miles to-day, and am about used up. Am strapped, and haven't had anything to eat for two days." Pomeroy has been the making of him. And if Pomeroy is such a half-and-half being, as the Champion asserts, it is reasonable to suppose that he is the editor's political mother, as well as father. The puzzling question comes in here: What sort of an outlandish lumix must be he whose father and mother is a single person, and that person a hermaphrodite?

CONTRADICTION.—We have received a note from Judge Graham, in which he says that he has not decided the liquor law of last Winter unconstitutional; that he never gave any decision on that question; that it has never been before him in any shape; that he never heard anything about it before; and that he scarcely knew there was such a law in existence. Such being the fact, we are sorry the public has been misled by our article. The report was brought by a person from Atchison, and the liquor men were highly elated at it. Those who have been acting upon the supposition that the law was of no effect, will have to go back and take a fresh start.

ABOUT THE BEST persecuted person in the United States, at the present time, is Mrs. Lincoln. The idle gossip about her, principally on the authority of Copperhead papers, must be very annoying. The public are entertained with stories of her being in New York to sell her fiery; to raise funds to live on; of her approaching marriage to some unknown person; of her having a piece of Laura Keane's dress, stained with her husband's blood, framed and hung up in her room; and a score of other idle stories. The country must be hard up for gossip.

THE DEMOCRACY are greatly troubled about the finances of the country. When we remember that every instance of general financial crash, and consequent misery to the industrial classes of the country, occurred under Democratic rule; and that, under Republican rule, the regular period has passed without such a crash, we are almost sorry that the Democracy are not stronger, so that they might howl louder.

THE "BROTHERHOOD SUFFRAGE" fellows don't seem to be pleased because some of the women lecturers peddle tracts. They might get even by peddling Helmholtz's Book, "by which 'man' is restored."

JOHN THE FARMER must have referred to Kallioh, when he spoke of the beast with ten horns. Kallioh is an unmitigated beast; and John, in all his visions, never encountered one that was more horny.

THE FERRY BOAT at this place has been pronounced not worth raising, and will be abandoned. We learn that the proprietors will have a new boat here, early in the Spring.

Governor Butler, of Nebraska, has removed his traps to Lincoln City, the new Capital, which will henceforth be the seat of the State Government.

THE OPPOSITION in fictitious brands that Burnett's Cooking Extractions receive, renders contrasts in quality apparent.

PUBLIC SCHOOL commenced in this place, on Monday, under the superintendence of Mr. Myers, recently from Ohio.

REGISTER!—Next Monday, the 14th, is the day fixed for the registration of voters. Let no one fail to register.

BURNETT'S FINE STORE in New York, on Broadway, is worth while to visit.

SHOWING HOW AN INDIAN AGENT, BY PROPER ECONOMY, MAY GET RICH.—A Western paper, ironically alluding to the manner in which Indian Agents accumulate fortunes, says: "An Indian Agent's salary is about $1,500. By being economical in the saving of his salary, he manages to retire at the expiration of a few years' term with about $40,000, and in the meantime supports his family in a style that corresponds with the dignity of an official and representative of 'the best Government the sun ever shone upon.' A superintendent who undertakes to say that an agent shall not make $40,000 out of an income of 6,000, is apt to get into trouble."

Married.

At Capma, Kansas, October 1st, by Rev. J. H. Ballou, Mr. MORRIS DAVISON, of Highland, and Miss HARRIET SCRAPTON, of Seneca.

At the same time and place, by the same, Mr. HENRY C. SERRATON, of Seneca, and Miss ELLEN M. DAVISON, of Highland.

Chingampigga.

At Kentucky correspondent tells of a little girl he met, only eight years old, who had chewed tobacco for four years.

The Boston Transcript facetiously remarks that, "owing to the execution of Roxbury, Boston will have a large crop of walnuts this season."

A carefully estimated list of the number of persons executed since 1865, by Maximilian's order, shows a total of 9,344.

Idyll, the old home of N. P. Willis, has been converted into a school for young ladies, with a romantic name already made.

An interesting historical print, a facsimile of the death warrant of Charles I. of England, has been issued by Thos. F. Carter, of Louisville, Ky.

An irreverent exchange says President Johnson's fondness for base ball arises from his being "on the bat" so frequently.

The "liven wedding" is the last new idea in the hymenal celebration. The anniversary period is not stated, but may be governed by the nature of the gifts.

The Locom (Ill.) Statesman holds the name of Clement L. Vallandigham for President, on the issue of "Redemption of Government Bonds in Greenbacks; or Repudiation."

A Vermont paper holds up as a sad warning to disobedient boys the case of a youngster who was sent out by his aunt the other day to pick berries, but who ran off to see a base ball match, and had four of his precious toes cut off by the cars.

At a great Republican rally at Defiance, Ohio, last week, one of the banners bore the inscription: "If any man hauls down the American flag, give him a post office."—A. Johnson.

Greeley says, "We sustain no man whose record is not as clear as the sun." You sustained Jeff. Davis; how about his record? You claimed the right of the Southern States to secede. Is that record "as clear as the sun?"

A correspondent of the New York Tribune says: "You may not have noticed that while Andrew Johnson said the personal pronoun 'my' ten times, and 'I' five times, they cannot be found at all in this address of our lamented Lincoln."

A western New York paper wants the ladies to play base ball, maintaining that it is "worth twice as much as this fiddle, Amanda-Anabella game called 'Crown-K', which is nothing but a mighty poor kind of billiards on the grass."

Propose of the recent Vanderbilt forgery, a New York letter says: "What an accumulating bank the City Bank is, to see a man went in there with check, drawers on I think they'd pay him something, simply from habit."

The Leavenworth Commercial speaking of the anti suffrage meeting in that city, says: "Kallioh, in his speech the other night, was heavy against female suffrage, but said not one word in favor of negro suffrage. He is not in favor of it."

Says the Republican, the Kansas Democracy "is waking up and coming out of the retreat to which it was driven by ropes and bayonets." Does the Republican mean that criminals who have escaped the hangman, and rebels who have survived the war, compose the Kansas Democracy?—St. Louis Democrat.

The careful parents of a four-year old boy in Cleveland have indulged him in roving propensities, by pinning a card to his back on which was written, "Johnny Cheever, City Hotel—please return." The little fellow came back the other day with a leg off, having been run over by a street car.

A noticeable feature of the yellow fever in New Orleans is that fewer women than men die of it. This is accounted for by the consideration that men are more exposed and less temperate in their habits than women.

Horace Greeley, in his Recollections, observes that he studied oratory while he had the measles, and the Boston Post remarks that "it is enough to give one the measles to hear him practice it now."

As an instance of the suffering incident to the heavy grain crops in the Northwest, the case of a farmer in Michigan is cited, who, at the cost of great privation, is holding on to his wheat in the expectation of getting $4 per bushel for it.